

Recreation has passed a resolution calling for athletes to stop endorsing cigarets on TV and elsewhere.

John Daly, Arlene Francis and Gene Rayburn will participate in CBS' July 20 "Miss Universe" coverage from Miami Beach.

NBC is readying hour-long documentaries on revolutionary educational techniques and on the training of a young New York Giants quarterback.

CBS' "The Defenders" is classified as an educational program in Japan.

• • •

Philadelphia

HIGHLIGHTS of past "Dis-senters" programs will be assembled in the WCAU-TV series' final telecast Sunday at noon. Segments offer the opinions of gypsy "Big Al," anti-capital punishment attorney Mary Alice Duffy, Cuban exile spokesman Cicilio Vasquez, Ethical Culture executive Algernon Black, Pennsylvania Athletic Commissioner Alfred Klein and satirist Jules Pfeiffer. Host Jean Shepherd will add some personal dissents.

An hour-long WFIL-TV tribute to Temple University on its 75th anniversary, pre-empted last Sunday by Astronaut Gordon Cooper's press conference, will be aired at 12:45 P. M. Sunday. Program features the university's choir and chamber orchestra, film footage and still photos. Channel 6 newscaster John Roberts, a Temple faculty member, narrates.

Harry Belafonte guests on WCAU-TV's "American Musical Theater" Sunday at 3 P. M.—

H. H.

---

LOSE SOMETHING? Place a result-producing Want-Ad in The Inquirer's Lost and Found Columns. Call LO 3-5000, a direct line to a courteous Inquirer ad-taker. She'll be happy to help you write your Lost and Found Want-Ad.