

Films And Dances

Enliven Campuses

The action is back.

Take tonight, for instance. It's a movie-goer's nightmare. There's so much good it's awful.

At Seton Hall in South Orange you can see Jean Renoir's "Rules of the Game," starting at 8 p. m. in the Student Lounge, Bishop Dougherty Student Center. Admission is $1.50.

Fairleigh Dickinson, Rutherford, offers "Fail Safe" and "The Hole" with showings at 4 and 8 p. m. in the lecture hall of Round Building. Admission is free.

Douglass offers Bergman's "Through a Glass Darkly" in Hickman Aud. 138 at 7:30 tonight.

Montclair State's offering is "Nobody Waved Goodbye" at 8 p. m. in Memorial Auditorium.

Wagner College, Staten Island, is having a Fine Arts Week. Tonight's offerings are the Richmond String Quartet at 4:30 and art films at 8, both in the auditorium.

"Jean Shepherd Unchained," part III, takes the center of the stage at the Student Commons, Fairleigh Dickinson Teaneck campus, tomorrow at 8 p. m. Admission is $1.50.

Caldwell College for Women is having a Sophomore Class Dance, 8:30 to midnight. Jacket and tie are required for the guys. Admission is $1.

Douglass is offering not one but two mixers, both from 8:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. The Freshman-Sophomore-Junior Class Mixer is in the Neilson Dining Hall. The WRSU Record Mixer is in Woodbury Lounge.

Columbia's Oriental Arts Festival continues with "The World of Suzie Wong" at 8 and 10 p. m. in Wollman Auditorium.

Wagner College presents the Twyla Tharp Dance Company

