

Lectures

X-AMERICAN ART OF THE 30'S AND 40'S — Gallery talk by Ann Zelle. Newark Museum. Thursday, 2.

X-ARTS OF JAPAN — Gallery talk by Eleanor Olson, curator. Newark Museum. Sunday, 3:30.

J.S. BACH: HIS SIGNIFICANCE TODAY — Rosalyn Tureck, concert pianist, presented by Music Educators Association of New Jersey. Essex House, Newark. Thursday, 6. Dinner, lecture and guest artist to be announced, in all-Bach program, $6.50. 744-1482.

X-CENTENNIAL GALLERY TOUR — Elsie W. Dillon at Montclair Art Museum. Sunday, 3:30.

X-COINS OF THE ANCIENT WORLD — Symposium panelists: Dr. Brooks E. Levy curator of numismatics, Princeton University; Margaret Thompson, curator of Greek coins, American Numismatic Society; William Selfridge. Newark Museum. Thursday, 7:30.

X-ESP: WHAT CAN WE MAKE OF IT? — Dr. Joseph B. Rhine, professor emeritus, Duke University. Presented by Rockland Community College. Spring Valley, N. Y. High School. Wednesday, 8:30.

X-RICHARD MALLERY — Readings from novels of Jane Austen, in Belles Lettres Series, Teaneck Public Library, 840 Teaneck Road. Reception for speaker following readings. Sunday, 3.

X-JEAN SHEPHERD — Raconteur-author ("In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash"). Centenary College for Women, Whitney Chapel, Hackettstown. Sunday, 8:30.